Boston, March 6. 1869.

Dear W. Garrison,

Our friend Edward L. Pierce leaves Boston on Thursday, for a short trip to Europe.

If you have any friends in or about London to whom you would like to give him letters of introduction and whom you think it would be pleasant for him to meet on a two such letters would be of service to him and would oblige,

Yours very truly,

W. Endicott Jr.

Hs.A.1.2 v.36, p.72A